Psychic Readings

Sarah is a genuine psychic medium and energy healer, who has a passion for using her unique gifts to bring healing to others.

Sarah works as a channel, connecting with spirit guides, angels and loved ones on the other side to bring through messages of love, guidance and healing.

She conducts many of her psychic readings by phone and email, allowing people from all over the world to benefit from a reading with her. Sarah also conducts in-person readings and energy healings on the Sunshine Coast Hinterland in Queensland, Australia.

Her belief in healing and being empowered and happy in life is the focus of all of her readings and healings.

A psychic reading with Sarah can help you to gain a greater understanding of what is happening in your life and why. If you feel like you're wandering around in the dark, feeling lost and confused, a reading can help to guide you back on the right path, enabling you to make the choices that will lead you to happiness and wholeness.

Connecting with loved ones who have crossed over to the other side can also be a powerfully healing and reassuring experience. Types of readings include;

- In-person Readings
- Phone Readings
- Email/Postal Readings (incl. mini-readings)

Energy Healings

Working off the body, Sarah first tunes into the state of your energy body, telling you what she picks up. She then allows the spirit guides and angels she works with to channel healing energies through her hands.

Energy healings can help you release past or present pain & physical / emotional trauma stored in our energy bodies. These can cause blockages in our lives, preventing us from moving forward and experiencing true inner peace, health and happiness.

Healings can help you to be aware of these blockages and the healing energy that comes through can help you to clear them. The guidance often received during healings can help you to understand and to know how to continue to help yourself.

Distance healings also available for those who can't make it in person.

Healings for Pets

If you are like Sarah, then you love your animal companions and care about their welfare.

Animals give us so much unconditional love and devotion and are wonderfully tuned into our feelings and often, our health. Sometimes, they too need our help. Whether it's illness or emotional upheaval, animals are very receptive to healing energies from the other side.

Sarah has been lucky enough to be a part of some amazing healing experiences involving animals they are so wonderfully open to the healing energies and love that comes through.

Guidance also comes through so that you, their loving owners, can understand what's going on and know how to further help your animal companion.

About Sarah

Testimonials

Alison - Sydney, Australia

This is the third reading I have received from Sarah, and each one has been so accurate. What she predicted would happen, did. What I also love about her readings is her kind and encouraging words. Thanks again!

Brad - Brisbane, Australia

Hi Sarah, Thank you for the reading. I believe most of what you have written to be accurate. I have visited a number of clairvoyants over a period of 3 months & your reading is spot on in-line with these readings.

I have been shown that people such as yourself have genuine gifts and that they are indeed valid. So thank you very much for the reading. Kind Regards.
